PIK711-0126 SPN-B-1

If you can't train them,
you can't blame them!

Short Description:

COURSE OVERVIEW This training program aims to provide participants with the fundamental skills and resources necessary for the effective coordination and monitoring of administrative tasks. By emphasising the importance of behavioural competencies, the program fosters a deeper understanding of interpersonal dynamics and communication within administrative roles. Participants will engage in activities designed to enhance their ability to navigate challenges and collaborate effectively, which is crucial for success in various administrative environments. Furthermore, the program focuses on the development of organisational and time management skills, which are vital for improving administrative performance across both public and private sectors. Through targeted training, participants will learn strategies to prioritise tasks, streamline workflows, and implement efficient systems, thereby increasing productivity. This comprehensive approach ensures that individuals are well-prepared to meet the demands of their roles and contribute positively to their organisations.
