Compensation and Benefits for Manpower Planning Senior Specialists

PIK-1225 ONLN-1

If you can't train them,
you can't blame them!

Short Description:

This 5-day training program equips Manpower Planning Senior Specialists with the essential knowledge and skills to design, implement, and evaluate effective compensation and benefits (C&B) strategies. The course emphasises the strategic role of C&B in workforce planning, talent attraction, retention, and motivation. Participants will gain a deep understanding of pay structures, job evaluation, performance-linked rewards, benefits management, and compliance with international labor laws and standards. Through lectures, group discussions, practical exercises, and an in-depth international case study, participants will explore both traditional and emerging approaches to compensation and benefits. By the end of the course, they will be prepared to integrate C&B strategies into workforce planning, align reward systems with organisational goals, and contribute to a culture of fairness, transparency, and competitiveness.
